

A network of UWC alumni that call South Africa home!

Meet our upcoming UWC students!!!

We have a lot to celebrate! We selected five students who we believe embody the UWC spirit evidenced by their achievements prior to UWC. The national selections process proved to be challenging this year as all the candidates each deserved a spot at one of the UWC's. Unfortunately we could only select five, please help welcome the following scholars to the UWC family;

- Phila Nkosi-Li Po Chun United World College of Hong Kong

- Kamogelo Moloto - Waterford Kamhlaba United World Collge of Southern Africa
- Olwethu Cele-Waterford Kamhlaba United World Collge of Southern Africa
- Lucky Khoza- Red Cross Nordic United World College
- Fibi Mthembu- United World College of the Adriatic

Some of the students achievements include

- Using technology to tackle mental health by building an app that helps students deal with anxiety
- The spirit of information sharing targeted at impoverished scholars by creating a podcast that analyses fiction books targeting low income students who cant afford books
- Food and clothing collection to distribute to the needy (empathy)
- Being aware of one's privilege by understanding that the opportunities you have had are unique and not everyone has them.
- Understanding the South Africa's diverse cultures and using that to inspire other to be proud their culture.

All the best to our candidates and we cant wait to see what our chosen students will achieve at their UWC schools.

Meet our Graduates!!!

Congratulations to our our students who just finished and graduated from the grueling International Baccalaureate Diploma. Our students achievements whilst at UWC include;

- Karel, a student who worked with The Rainbow Recycling Project in Port Elizabeth focusing on environmental sustainability and providing healthy food for disadvantaged children.
- Asemahle Mgyai who is specifically involved in Marketing for Elea Africa - A three week experiential learning programme where the aim is to "initiate a discourse around the valuable knowledge that can be found in Africa while illustrating the continent's diversity of cultures, languages and history. Moreover, allocating a portion of the funds raised through the program's fees for starting a fund to help some of the school that will be visited in East Africa (Rwanda, Uganda, Kenya and the United Republic of Kenya)

Invites you to:

RAISE THE BAR

Date: 26th July 2018 | Time: 18:30 for 19:00 | Location: FotoZA Gallery

\(see directions here\)

UWC South Africa is celebrating Mandela month and his legacy in promoting education and peace. We are hosting 'Raise the Bar' at FotoZA, in Rosebank. During this evening, you will be introduced to the newly selected UWCSA Class of 2020, and have a chance to converse with the UWC Alumni. This experience will be topped off by the Mandela100 exhibition, which will be on show at the gallery.

We aim to share UWC's inspirational mission with you, and engage you as we raise funds towards the new scholars experience. We also seek to gather your financial support to ensure that the national committee can continue offering South Africa's young changemakers this opportunity of a lifetime.

"UWC makes education a force to unite people, nations and cultures for peace and a sustainable future."
